Real Estate For Sale At Auction

On April 10th, at 11 o'clock A. M., at my office in the Mills Block, I will sell at auction to the highest bidder, for cash, the lot corner of El Paso and Third Streets, fronting 47 feet on El Paso Street by 134 feet on Third Street. This is a rare chance to secure a good business lot cheap. Lower El Paso Street is destined to be the wholesale district of the city. Improvements on this street are contemplated which will materially advance property in the neighborhood of this lot. Complete Abstract will be furnished purchaser. All taxes paid to year 1900. No bid less than $1500.00 will be entertained.

HORACE B. STEVENS, Agent.

Artist Classes.

The artist, Mrs. Herridon, may be found at her studio in the Center Block, San Francisco St. every week day till 2 p. m. She gives private lessons to promising young people and to ladies, in drawing or painting. Or you may join and study in or out of her classes. Call for full particulars.

The Painting Outlook

for 1900 in El Paso is brighter than at any time in the history of the city.

The Mission of Paint

is to preserve as well as beautify. You can't afford to let your house go shabby. It means decayed floors, broken mouldings, work for the carpenters. Save money by painting now. Let us furnish you the material. It is the best that money can buy.

You can rely on our Linseed Oil.

You can rely on our brand of White Lead.

You can rely upon the fact that what you buy from us will be as represented.

THE CHURCHES.

A Bright Young Presbyterian Clergyman of Chicago.

Rev. Mr. Irwin of Fifth Presbyterian church, Chicago, has telegraphed the corresponding committee of the church here, in answer to their correspondence, that he would come to El Paso as a supply for one month in view of an arrangement with the church as their pastor. Mr. Irwin is one of the brightest and most successful young clergymen of Chicago. His wife's health is suffering impairment in Chicago and for that reason he would come to El Paso and take part pay for his services in El Paso climate. He is getting $2500 per annum in Chicago. The membership of his church more than doubled last year.

In correspondence with the committee of the Presbyterian church with reference to a pastorate here the Rev. Mr. Walker of Tuledego, Ala., has signified a willingness to respond favorably to a call from the church here. Persons in El Paso have heard Mr. Walker preach in his brother's church in Los Angeles and commend him in the highest terms. He is an eminently consecrated and successful pastor.
